WFKM President Speech

Dear Friends,

We wish to invite you to the 1st world championship in Krav Maga, which will take place on 22nd of October 2017 in Jerusalem, Israel.

Jerusalem is one of the oldest cities of the world - the beauty of the city, its history, its rich heritage, especially the religious and sacred sites were used as a magnet for tourists and pilgrims of all generations. Jerusalem is one of the strongest tourist attractions in the world, offering a combination of age-old history, institutions, culture, religion, architecture, archeology and more.

Jerusalem welcomes delegations of Krav Maga's athletes who will participate in the 1st World Championship of Krav Maga - the most important and the biggest event since the establishment of the World Krav Maga Federation.

World Krav Maga Federation, on behalf of Israeli competition organizers, is looking forward and is proud to host delegations and athletes from all over the world.

Championship organization committee will do everything to provide the best hospitality and to ensure the success of this special event. We believe it would be great and a memorable event for all of us, a moment of brotherhood and friendship, a moment of peace, exchange and understanding during the competition and after returning back to your home-countries.

We expect and hope to see you all on October 22, 2017, in Jerusalem.

Sincerely,

Gaby Michaeli - President

World Federation of Krav Maga

Founding Speech

Mr. Antonio Monsellato

Mr. Kakha Basilia

Dear friends,

since its creation Krav Maga has come a long way!

Internationally recognized for its relative simplicity, it has been adopted in both civilian and military field, especially for its effectiveness.

Over the years Krav Maga has increasingly gained more notoriety, precisely because it responds to current security needs. In fact, beyond the "technical" success of Krav Maga, what most has vehicle it among the various practiced defense disciplines, it was quite the awareness that in our societies it is essential to know how defend ourselves, both technically and psychologically. The fundamental element that has determined also its undeniable success is that the techniques are tested in real situations and regularly updated by experts. So it is not a "static" discipline, but in constant evolution.

And it is this element that has motivated myself, Gaby Michaeli and Kakha Basilia to establish the World Federation of Krav Maga, not to be just another business offering what is already existing in the world, but to highlight the sporting potential of the Krav Maga as a fundamental part of a bigger inclusion of Krav Maga in the sporty and social context of our society.

Although the Krav Maga was not born to competitive sports, as it was not even karate or any other martial art, at the base there is a common denominator: self-defense. However, the inclusion of these sports disciplines including Krav Maga, as part of the competition keeps intact their own tradition and in the future more people will be interesting to practice.

Proof of this, it is the French Championship of Krav Maga and especially the International Open that France organizes this year for the second time and that sees more and more Nations involved with numerous delegations. In the context of Krav Maga competition, we can give the name of "Technical Krav Maga" (TKM), in order to identify immediately what it's about.

WORLD KRAV MAGA CHAMPIONSHIP

www.worldkravmaga.org

The WFKM, trusting in the involvement of the many Krav Maga athletes, in October 22, 2017, organizes the first World Championship of Krav Maga in Jerusalem. The choice of this wonderful city is not random. Israel is the Country where Krav Maga was born and it is deserved starting from this place to inaugurate this sports event.

This event is just the first of many other initiatives! The WFKM has already planned others in various Nations of the world. For example, it is already scheduled for next year, the European Championship, as well as other national initiatives. Actually, 40 Nations have already subscribed to the initiative and have joined the WFKM.

An elective congress will be held in October 2017, ahead of the World Championship of Jerusalem. More details will be provided with the organizational program.

A special thanks those who believe in this project and who joined the WFKM, especially we would like to thank Mr. Francis DIDIER, President of FFKDA, who has accepted the Honorary Presidency of WFKM and that will make us share his precious advices that are the result of a long competitive and political experience.

In the coming days the official website will give you all the information about the activities of WFKM.

We expect you all on October 22 in Jerusalem to share together this unique and exciting event!

Mr. Antonio Monsellato
Secretary General of the WFKM

Mr. kakha Basilia

Jerusalem is a city located on a plateau in the Jewish mountains between the Mediterranean and the Dead Sea. One of the oldest cities in the world, it is considered a holy city in the three great Abrahamic religions of Judaism, Christianity and Islam.

The part of Jerusalem called the City of David was installed in the 4th millennium BC. In 1538, walls were built around Jerusalem under Suleiman the Magnificent. Today, these walls define the old town, which has traditionally been divided into four neighborhoods - known since the early 19th century as the Armenian, Christian, Jewish and Muslim quarters. The old town became a World Heritage Site in 1981. Modern Jerusalem has grown beyond the boundaries of the Old City.

According to biblical tradition, King David conquered the city of the Jebusites and established him as the capital of the United Kingdom of Israel, and his son, King Solomon, commanded the construction of the First Temple. The holiness of Jerusalem in Christianity, preserved in the Septuagint which Christians have adopted as their own authority, has been strengthened by the New Testament account of the crucifixion of Jesus there. In Sunni Islam, Jerusalem is the third most sacred city, after Mecca and Medina. In the Islamic tradition in 610 CE, he became the first qibla, the focal point for Muslim prayer (salat), and Muhammad made his nocturnal journey there ten years later, ascending to heaven where he speaks to God, according to the Koran. Despite an area of only 0.9 square kilometers, the old town is home to many sites of religious seminal importance, among them the Temple Mount with its western wall, the Dome of the Rock and al-Aqsa Mosque, Church of the Holy Sepulcher. Outside the old town stands the tomb of the garden.

All branches of the Israeli government are located in Jerusalem, including the Knesset (Israeli parliament), the residences of the Prime Minister and the President, and the Supreme Court. Jerusalem is also home to some Israeli non-governmental institutions of national importance, such as the Hebrew University and the Israel Museum with its Book Sanctuary.

Jerusalem: Old City

Visit of the Old City of Jerusalem. Our appreciation of this Golden City begins with a panoramic view from the Mount of Olives, overlooking the walls of the Old City and the ancient Jewish cemetery. Visit the Church of All Nations. Proceed to Mount Zion to see the tomb of King David and the nearby Room of the Last Supper (Mark 14.13, Luke 22. 10-38, Matt 26 17-29, Acts 1.13 and Acts 2 the Pentecost). Enter the Old City to begin exploring the wonders of Jerusalem. Walk through the Cardo, the main street of Jerusalem 2000 years ago. View the Temple Mount and the Western Wall. Walk along the Via Dolorosa, where Jesus carried His Cross. Continue to the Church of the Holy Sepulcher (Matt. 27. 33-57, 28.10).

Masada – Dead Sea

Departure early by the Judean Desert to the Dead Sea, the lowest point of the globe at 400 meters above sea level. Passage in front of Qumran, where the Dead Sea Scrolls were found. Visit of Masada, a Herodian fortress overlooking the Dead Sea with its palaces, thermal baths and warehouses, but also place of Jewish resistance of the Zealots against the Romans during the Great Revolt in 70 and the remains on the spot prove this tragic event.

May the time and weather allow it, you will experience the unique sensation of floating on the Dead Sea Waters... a must do
